Police Academy Scholarship

The Chiefs Mark N. Overton and Miguel A. De la Rosa Police Academy Scholarship

The Bal Harbour Rotary Club (BHRC) along with the Bal Harbour Police Department (BHPD) is in search of a college graduate or graduating senior college student from the Miami-Dade area interested in serving the community as a police officer. The Bal Harbour Rotary Club/Bal Harbour Police Department Chiefs Mark N. Overton & Miguel A. De la Rosa Police Academy Scholarship was established to honor the memory of Chief Mark N. Overton and Chief Miguel A. De la Rosa, both well-respected police executives, who passed away November 3, 2016 and January 24, 2018 respectively. The BHRC, in conjunction with the BHPD, is offering the scholarship to one senior college student and/or a college graduate. The scholarship will cover tuition up to $5,000 to attend a local Police Academy in Miami-Dade or Broward County. Applications are due to the Bal Harbour Police Department by May 30, 2019. The scholarship winner will be announced by July 2019 and the recipient will have up to two years to attend the academy.
