Andrea Bocelli will perform live from Duomo Cathedral on Easter

Most churchgoers won't be able to enter a place of worship on this Easter Sunday, but an exception is being made for Andrea Bocelli, who will perform a concert that night at the historic Duomo Cathedral in Milan, Italy, to be offered as a global live-stream on YouTube.

The performance, titled "Bocelli: Music for Hope," is set to take place at 7 pm. in Italy, the singer's deeply afflicted home nation. That time slot will have it streaming in the U.S. at 1 pm. ET and 10 am PT, hours at which many viewers would have been attending church services if not for the worldwide coronavirus crisis. It'll be seen exclusively on Bocelli's YouTube channel (click here)
