Summary of Activities and Events

Code Enforcement

Code Enforcement Officers (CEOs) investigated an animal complaint of loose dogs on the 9300 Block of Collins Avenue. The dogs were reportedly loose in the common grounds of an apartment building. Although Village codes do not prohibit loose dogs on private property, CEOs met with the dog owner and encouraged her to leash her dogs while outside. The dog owner was also informed of Village code regarding loose dogs in public places.

Code Enforcement Officers investigated a complaint of construction debris left on a balcony of a condominium building on the 10100 Block of Collins Ave. CEOs reminded the contractor of Village codes and posted a written warning on the property.

Criminal Investigations

The Criminal Investigations Division continues its investigation into an armed robbery that occurred at the North Parking Lot earlier this month. Detectives arrested the subject involved in the robbery, but the investigation now focused on building a criminal case through the gathering of physical evidence to corroborate the charges. Detectives are reviewing additional video footage and requesting cellular site information to assist in the prosecution.
